Welcome to e-Learning

Continue to greet your teachers with the courtesy expected.

Sir...

Do not collaborate (work) with other students on your online assignments unless directed to do so by your teacher.

Yow youth... presha! Need de answer fo #6 .

Jamal, I haven’t seen your assignment. Did you submit it?

No Jamal! Avoid slangs and social media language. Use complete sentences.

Be polite and respectful in all communication with your classmates and teachers.

Hello Mrs. Smith,
I am emailing to ask about the homework that is due on Monday. I do not know what the last sentence of question #3 means. Can you explain it to me, please?

Science

Intentional (Deliberate)

- Copying a friend’s work
- Copying & pasting from web pages, etc. without acknowledging the sources
- Buying, downloading or borrowing a paper
- Using images from online e.g google images without permission

Unintentional (Accidental)

- Not knowing when and how to cite sources
- Not knowing how to paraphrase or summarize
- Not knowing what “common knowledge” is
- Recycling an old paper

What is Plagiarism?

Don’t use content from the internet as if it is your own. That is called Plagiarism and is a form of cheating. You can get a failing grade as a result!

Do not allow anyone else to log into your student account to complete your work on your behalf.

Help me Mommy but please don’t do it for me.

It’s all about school. Keep it clean. Any unwanted communication to your online classmates is not allowed.

Use email addresses and profile pictures that are appropriate for an educational environment.
